

5B – Preview Answers

You choose

Use one of the words below to fill in the blanks.

just                      already                      before                      yet

1. Would you like to go and see the new Johnny Chan movie tonight?
No thanks, I've already seen it. How about something else?
2. I'm worried about Linda. It's 10 p.m. and she hasn't come back from the party yet.
3. Is Barry still in the office?
No, he has just/already left.
4. Have you been to Paris before?
No, this is my first time.
5. James arrived in town five days ago and he's already found a job.
6. You look very hot.
I am. I've just been playing tennis outside.
7. Haven't you finished your homework yet?
8. I've played golf before, but I wasn't very good.
9. I've just been outside and it hasn't stopped raining yet.
10. You finished your dinner already? I've never seen you eat so fast before.

Jumble

Put the words in the correct order.

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 1. already have breakfast I eaten .       | I have already eaten breakfast.       |
| 2. work just from has got She home .      | She has just got home from work.      |
| 3. before has spaghetti never He cooked . | He has never cooked spaghetti before. |
| 4. yet Why home you come haven't ?        | Why haven't you come home yet?        |

Your turn                      Answers will vary.

What words have you just learnt in this lesson?

I have just learnt the words 'already', 'just', 'yet' and 'before'.

What have you already done today?

I have already had my breakfast and my lunch.

What haven't you done yet?

I have not had my dinner yet.

Have you studied the grammar in this lesson before?

No, I haven't. This is the first time I have ever seen it.