

5E – Review Answers

You choose

Circle the correct word to complete the sentence.

1. I'm looking for somewhere to stay.
2. There's nothing in my guidebook.
3. Is there anywhere nearby?
4. I don't know anybody here.
5. I'm sure somebody there knows someplace I can stay.
6. Do you have everything you need?
7. Where is everyone?
8. Everybody stayed home tonight.

Why was the backpacker lucky?

He narrowly avoided getting a ride with a dangerous criminal.

You try

Read the questions and answers below. Write the same answer again as a full sentence using anybody, anything or anywhere.

1. Where are you going?

Nowhere.

I'm not going anywhere.

2. What did you find in the basement?

Nothing.

I didn't find anything in the basement.

3. Who were you talking to before?

Nobody.

I wasn't talking to anybody.

4. Who did you tell about your new job?

Nobody.

I didn't tell anybody about my new job.

5. What have you had to eat today?

Nothing

I haven't had anything to eat today.

6. Where are you going this summer?

Nowhere.

I'm not going anywhere this summer.

How about you?

Answers will vary.

If everybody likes something, do you like it too?

Yes, I do, because I believe the crowd is right more often than not.

Have you ever gotten lost somewhere?

I am often lost. The last time I was lost was inside my own house.

Think of somewhere you really like and write down three things about it.

Jerusalem is an ancient city, with a fascinating history stretching back thousands of years.

The atmosphere is amazing, and there are many pilgrims.

Unfortunately, Jerusalem has often had problems with terrorism and warfare, especially in recent years.