

6E – Preview Answers

Try again

Rearrange the information to make a sentence. Don't use who/that/which.

I saw a movie last night. It wasn't very interesting.

The movie I saw last night wasn't very interesting.

1. She goes to the gym. It's very expensive.

The gym she goes to is very expensive.

2. He went to a job interview. It didn't go very well.

The job interview he went to didn't go very well.

3. I bought a new car. It's red.

The new car I bought is red.

4. I was standing next to a man in line. He was talking on his cell phone.

The woman I was standing next to in line was talking on her cell phone.

5. I watched a documentary on sharks last night. It was fascinating.

The documentary on sharks I watched last night was fascinating.

6. We were invited to a wedding. We couldn't go.

We couldn't go to the wedding we were invited to.

7. I work with five people. They are all very friendly.

The people I work with are all very friendly.

8. You bought a new computer. It comes with high speed internet.

The new computer you bought comes with high speed internet.

You try

Make questions using the information below.

Sally recommended a hotel to you. You can't remember the name. You ask:

What's the name of the hotel you recommended?

1. You asked your co-worker to write a report. You want to know if he has finished. You ask:

Have you finished that report I asked you to write?

2. You bought a book last week. You can't remember where you put it. You ask:

Where is the book I bought last week?

3. Mike was reading a book yesterday. You want to know the title. You ask:

What was the title of the book you were reading yesterday, Mike?

4. Rachel's family is planning a party. You want to know the time. You ask:

Rachel, what time is the party you're planning?

What are you wearing?

Write a sentence about each piece of clothing you are wearing now.

These are the jeans I bought in New York.

I'm wearing trousers I bought in London.

This is a shirt I bought in Tokyo.

My watch was a present I got for my birthday.

My shirt was made in China.

My trousers are grey.