Imagine you are in charge of a high school. You can make all the rules. What will you allow students to do? What won't you let them do?

I won't let students sleep in class.

I won't let students chew gum in class.

I won't let students use their cell phones in class.

I will let students be part of governing the school.

Were your teachers in school very strict? What did they make you do? What didn't they let you do?

The teachers in my school were not that strict except during class. We weren't allowed to talk in class. The girls were made to wear skirts or dresses even in the winter. The boys weren't allowed to have long hair. We were made to walk in the hallways and not talk loudly.
