Make at least two suggestions for each of the following situations.

- Your friend doesn't like her job and is thinking about quitting.
You should find a new job before you quit. Also, make sure you leave work without burning any bridges.
- Your brother never has any money and wants to borrow some from you.
Why don't you stop spending your money on video games and toys? Also, you should get a job.
- Your friend is getting married soon but can't decide where to have the wedding.
What if you decide how big of a wedding you want, and also figure out how much money you want to spend on the ceremony?
- Your friend wants to donate some money to a charity, but can't decide on a good one.
You should decide which problem interests you the most and research the charities that give money to solving it.
- Your parents want to visit London for the first time.
You should buy a guidebook and decide on which places you want to visit. You should also decide on a budget for the trip.
- You visit your sister's apartment and it is a mess.
You really need to remember to clean up after yourself. Have you considered hiring a maid?
