

3J – Preview Answers

Multiple choice

Circle the INCORRECT word for each sentence.

1. My father is a tall man with d. brown hair.

- a. long                                      b. short                                      c. wavy                                      d. noisy

2. She's wearing a dress made of c.

- a. silk                                      b. satin                                      c. carpet                                      d. cotton

3. He has a. eyes and red hair.

- a. red*                                      b. blue                                      c. brown                                      d. green

4. He has new brown d.

- a. shoes                                      b. glasses                                      c. jeans                                      d. briefcase

5. The b, blonde-haired woman is getting on the bus.

- a. tall                                      b. hat                                      c. short                                      d. thin

6. My sister has lost a lot of weight. Now she's very c.

- a. thin                                      b. trim                                      c. fat                                      d. in shape

7. Your uncle is always helping people. He's so a.

- a. evil*                                      b. nice                                      c. generous                                      d. kind

8. Jack has a lot of thick, c. hair.

- a. wavy                                      b. black                                      c. bald                                      d. curly

You try

Answers will vary

Read the description of Tim.

Tim is very tall. He has brown eyes and long black hair. His hair is straight. He is very thin. He is wearing dark trousers and a blue shirt with a green necktie made of cotton.

Now write a description of Tim's brother, Tom. Tom looks completely different from Tim.

Tom is short. He is bald. He has one blue eye and one green eye. He is quite muscular, and at the moment he is wearing a teddy-bear costume.

Your turn

Answers will vary

What do you look like? Write a self-description.

I am quite slim, and I have long, red hair and green eyes, not to mention lots of freckles. I am wearing jeans and a yellow t-shirt.