

4K – Review Answers

You try

Answers may vary

Look at the text again. Write sentences using the adverbs below about the people in the text.

(well)

He usually bowls very well.
Stan's bowling very well.
Barry isn't playing as well as he normally does.
Norman usually sleeps well.

(badly)

Barry's playing very badly this evening.
Norman slept badly.

(beautifully)

Juliet moves beautifully.

(hard)

Rick serves hard.
He practices hard every day.

Matching

Match the sentences in column A with the sentences in column B.

Column A

1. I can't study with all that noise. c.
2. It's almost summer vacation. a.
3. This road is really old and damaged. e.
4. I'm not happy with my exam results. b.
5. I'm not joking. d.

Column B

- a. The students are waiting excitedly.
- b. I didn't do very well.
- c. The neighbours are partying too loudly.
- d. I'm trying to speak seriously.
- e. I'll drive carefully.

Correct it

Find the mistake in the sentences below and rewrite them correctly.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. His brother doesn't swim fastly. | His brother doesn't swim fast. |
| 2. I can play the piano good. | I can play the piano well. |
| 3. The players all tried hardly to win the game. | The players all tried hard to win the game. |
| 4. Please speak rudely to teachers. | Please speak politely to teachers. |
| 5. Listen careful to the directions. | Listen carefully to the directions. |

Your turn

Answers will vary.

Write about a famous athlete. What can they do well? What skills do they have?

Andrew Murray is a famous tennis player. He can play tennis well. He can play quickly and skillfully. He can control the game masterfully.

How about a famous actor or celebrity?

Rowan Atkinson is a famous actor. He played Mr. Bean. He can make funny faces very amusingly, and he can act physically and silently, making people laugh without speaking.