Try these

Read the text and choose the correct form of the verb in each sentence by adding to or -ing.
dance

Let's go dancing. I like dancing.

I like to dance too, but I don't like dancing alone.

get up

I still have to get up early tomorrow.

I thought you didn't mind getting up early.

party

I like partying as much as you do.

Yeah, but I really like to party.

I refuse to accept you like partying more than me.

drink

I enjoy drinking all night.

So do I, but we don't want to drink too much, do we?

Maybe we should start drinking soft drinks.

Or we could continue drinking until dawn.

stop

I suggest stopping.

But I don't want to stop.

How about you? Answers will vary.

Do you celebrate the summer solstice in your country? What do you do?

Yes, we do, but we celebrate it as Aboriginal Day, when we celebrate the First Nations people of my country.
