

8J – Preview Answers

You choose

Fill in the blanks with the words below. You can use each word more than once.

whichever whatever whoever wherever whenever however

1. I'll do whatever it takes to win that race.
2. Whenever I go out with John he wants to talk about football.
3. Whoever parked their car here is going to get a ticket.
4. Kevin just eats whatever he wants. That's why he's been gaining weight.
5. You can build it wherever you want, but I want it finished by the end of the month.
6. I'll be thinking about you wherever I go.
7. Here's the menu. Choose whichever/whatever drink you want.
8. Whenever I hear this song I start to cry.
9. It's really important for me to get to New York. I'll go there however I can.
10. Your assignment is to write an essay about someone famous. You can choose whoever you want.
11. I keep a good luck charm in my pocket wherever I go.
12. Whichever way you travel, it will take at least three hours to get there.

You try

Answers may vary

Make your own sentences using whichever, whatever, whoever, wherever, whenever or however.

1. Tom's mother lets him stay out all night.
He can come home whenever he wants.
2. You can bring anyone you want to the party.
You can bring whoever you want to the party.
3. I always buy a lottery ticket when there is a big prize.
I always buy a lottery ticket whenever there is a big prize.
4. I don't know what my wife wants for her birthday, but I'll buy it for her.
I'll buy whatever my wife wants for her birthday.
5. There are lots of ways to cook eggs. I cook them any way I want.
I cook eggs however I want.
6. Every time Sarah gets a bonus, she puts half of it in a savings account.
Whenever Sarah gets a bonus she puts half in a saving account.
7. Tell me where you want to go and I'll take you there.
I'll take you wherever you want to go.
8. I have two choices to make, but both of them will cause me trouble.
Whichever choice I make will cause me trouble.

How about you?

Answers will vary

What songs, smells or places bring back memories for you?

Whenever I smell garlic I think of Italy. Whenever I see the ocean I think of California. I think about how unhealthy it is whenever I eat fast food.